

SAVE THE DATE! For the 2010 Snowdance and Auction!

The Ogden Valley Business Association and The Ogden Valley Winter Sports Foundation

(Formerly the Snowbasin Ski Education Foundation) are once again teaming up to host the Annual Snowdance and Auction on Saturday, November 20, 2010. The Snowdance is an elegant evening of entertainment and fine dining that has come to signify the kick-off to the ski season. It will be held at Pineview Lodge at Wolf Creek Utah Resort. Silent and live auctions, music, delicious fare from Harley and Buck's Grill, and award winning programs and speakers will combine for what is always a memorable evening. The festivities begin at 6:00 p.m.

This year, three- time Olympian, Heidi Voelker will provide the keynote address. Voelker was a 12-year member (1985 to 1997) of the U.S. Ski Team and has competed in the Olympics three times. Heidi also competed on the World Championship Team for the U.S. three times. She has six top-10 World Cup finishes to her credit, including a third place finish in 1994. Heidi was the 1994 National Champion in Giant Slalom and finished her illustrious racing career with a third place finish in the giant slalom event at the U.S. Nationals in 1997.

In honor of Voelker's accomplishments in the competitive ski world, Park City named a street near the Utah Olympic Park after her: Voelker Court. Heidi is also the first woman, and living person, to be featured on a Utah license plate.

Proceeds from the event will be used to support the Ogden Valley Winter Sports Foundation and to further the goals of The Ogden Valley Business Association.
